CWV VERY DISAPPOINTED WITH SENATE CONFIRMATION OF KATHLEEN SEBELIUS

ALEXANDRIA, VA: Yesterday, April 28, 2009, the United States Senate confirmed former Kansas Governor Kathleen Sebelius to the position of Secretary of Health and Human Services in President Obama's administration. Today, the CWV wishes to publicly express our profound disappointment with the Obama administration, and the Senate over their continued disregard for the lives of countless unborn citizens.

It is no secret that Kathleen Sebelius, who claims to be an ardent and practicing Catholic, has demonstrated numerous times throughout her political career that she unconditionally supports views on the status of the unborn that severely contradict the teachings of her proclaimed Church, and many State's laws. Her efforts supporting pro-abortion "rights" and those "doctors" that perform the killings have been so egregious as to prompt her local Bishop, (the Most Reverend Joseph F. Naumann, Archbishop of Kansas City, Kansas) in 2008 to publicly correct her and to issue her a personal message encouraging her not to receive the Eucharist (also known as Communion) in Archdiocese churches until she reconciles her behavior with God and the Church.

By placing Kathleen Sebelius in the position of Secretary of Health and Human Services, President Obama and the Senate have elevated a person whose documented activity is oxymoronic to this position's intent. We now have a Secretary of Health and Human Services that does not care about the health of human life in all its stages.
